The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p. m. to-day, for Missouri are: Fair weather; slightly warmer; southerly winds.

The brightest addition to the joys of Easter morning will be the Easter SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

By all means let FILLEY be appointed Consul-to-Hong Kong, and may the Lord have mercy on the Hong Kongites.

The difference between the Missouri Legislature and a Donnybrook fair is so slight as to be not worth mentioning.

BRET-HARTE's captivating pen will contribute to the interest of to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH by furnishing the first installment of an entertaining new story entitled, "The Knight Errant of the Foot Hills."

PEOPLES who are considering how to build artistic and comfortable homes at the least cost will find valuable suggestions in the plans for a $2,500 house which will be given in to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

BY THE LAW OF COMPENSATION several Republican candidates who were assessed by Chairman MCALLISTER in the recent municipal campaign are far more in need of an office than Chairman MCALLISTER. Chairman MCALLISTER's services to his party have been their own rewards.

THE leading Republican business men who have been asked to endorse CHAUNCEY L. FILLEY for the Hong Kong consulship may be able to stretch their consciences to the indorsing point, but it will only be done on the ground that their sinful act will be justified by the good it will do the city.

ONE of the most popular ideas originated by the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH is the publishing of a complete series of lessons in short-hand writing. The most practical and convenient system is given in this series, the second lesson of which will be furnished in to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

If FILLEY will take his henchmen, the officials and official deputies of the City Central Committee, to Hong Kong with him the resignation of the people of St. Louis to his departure will be tinctured with palpitating joy. But we shudder to contemplate the condition of municipal politics and the registration lists in Hong Kong after a year or two.

In addition to all the news of the day, to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH will contain bright articles by such brilliant and entertaining writers as BILL NYE, GRACE GREENWOOD, OUIDA, LUCY HOOPER, FRANK G. CARPENTER, and MARY GAY HUMPHREYS. They will serve a rich spread of humor, foreign correspondence and information on current topics.

DESPITE the effort of the St. Louis railroads to keep as many people as possible of St. Louis on April 20, there are faint indications that the people of surrounding States will come in numbers to join the grandest celebration of the Washington Centennial.

YORK CITY. Numerous stars in the parade from and many requests from individuals and interest the answer to all such requests and questions we state that there is plenty of space and ample accommodations for all.

LECTURING CULLOM.

The Chicago Tribune in the "off years" preaches earnestly against the un wisdom and wickedness of tariff protection for the creation and maintenance of manufacturing combines and monopolies, but it never fails to support the tariff monopoly ticket in elections. It now reads a severe lecture to Senator CULLOM and the Republican majority of the Senate's Interstate Commerce Committee, and threatens them with the unanimous opposition of Illinois' people, for going out of their way to help Wall street bull chrome stocks by planning some legislation which will prevent Canada's Grand Trunk line from competing with American trunk lines. The Tribune truthfully says:

Patriotism does not require that a Canadian corporation shall be forbidden to compete with New York and Pennsylvania roads and punished for making low rates to Western producers.

Does patriotism require that foreign manufacturers shall be forbidden to compete with our Eastern manufacturing combines and to make cheaper goods for Western producers. The Tribune has said so a hundred times. Why does it not threaten Senator CULLOM with the unanimous opposition of the people of Illinois for holding the contrary, and for voting every time in favor of the combines and against the Western producers? To show that we are not protecting home industries in protecting American railroads against foreign competition, the Tribune says:

The Grand Trunk may be owned by Britishers, as is the case with the Illinois Central and other American roads (the stocks and bonds of half the roads in this country are largely held in England, Holland, and Germany), but the Western people are interested, nevertheless, in having this Canadian road free to compete and make the best rates for American traffic it can.

The protected manufactures of the East are notoriously run by foreign capital and imported foreign labor to as great an extent as the railroads. If it is important to Western interests that all roads, Canadian or domestic, shall be left free to compete and make as low rates as they please, it must be even more important to Western interests that freer competition in manufactures shall give us cheaper railroads and railroad trains, cheaper clothes and cheaper farm supplies, to enable Western farmers to keep a footing in the grain markets of Europe against the competition of the Indian and Australian colonies. But Senator CULLOM and all the Tribune helps to elect vote the other way.

SPEAKING FOR THE President, Gen. HENRY MCNALLY says that while the President is glad to have the advice of Congressmen with regard to local appointments he does not feel bound to accept it and reserves absolutely the right of selection. In other words, the Congressmen are Presidential advisers and not absolute dispensers of official patronage. The Post-DISPATCH told the Congressmen this long ago, but in view of the informal Presidential ukase on the subject we take the liberty of advising the St. Louis Congressmen to post their slate in a prominent spot in Washington and stay at home and study up on the tariff and other subjects for legislation. This course will be more profitable to their constituents at large and less disappointing to them.

AS COMPANION pieces to the articles on the beau of the State, whose attractive qualities of mind, person and pocket-book were fully set forth in the last SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, accurate descriptions of the belles of the State will be given in to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

The personal charms, mental graces and accomplishments and in many cases the financial attractions of one thousand belles are furnished for the palpitating consideration of the beau. This is about the time of the year that a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, and if the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH shall be the means of ringing a number of charming belles during the spring the world will be the happier for it.

ELMER & SONS have asked a Baltimore court to restrain FLEISCHMAN & Co. from selling vinegar below cost to the customers of ELMER & SONS. The allegation is that FLEISCHMAN & Co. sell vinegar below cost to compel the other firm to enter into a compressed yeast combine and put up prices to consumers. If the courts can prevent men from selling articles of necessity below cost, one great means of forcing firms into combines will be destroyed. But if the courts can do that, why can they not also prevent a combine from putting prices too high, and thus render it harmless?

READERS of to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH will not have their attention distracted from their devotions by the pretty Easter toilettes of the ladies. All the ravishing bonnets and costumes which will adorn the maid and matron loveliness of St. Louis to-morrow will be fully described in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH. St. Louisans, therefore, can learn, while sitting comfortably at home, what the St. Louis ladies wear on the brightest Sunday of the year.

THE New Yorkers are preparing to charge $100 a peat at the parade and $10 a bite at the table, while the price of lodgings is out of sight during the Washington centennial there. On the other hand, regular prices will prevail in St. Louis. Board and lodgings, and every one with an eye can see the parade. And there will not be much difference in the attractiveness of the celebrations.

THE Bell Telephone Co. has applied in

Massachusetts for authority to add another $10,000,000 to its immensely bloated capital stock. So long as State Legislatures refuse to restrict the inordinate profits of this monopoly its capitalization will have to be increased to prevent its enormous dividends and surplus from reflecting shame on the Legislatures that connive at robbery.

THERE is a lively prospect that the United States troops will find the white men who are rushing into Oklahoma more troublesome than all the Indians in the Territory. The savagery in human nature seems to be developed by the expected fight over land claims. It is a case of "every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost."

Attractive Alton.

From the Alton Sentinel Democrat.

WE have a copy of the Alton Standard, a newspaper which is a good deal of yesterday. It was a great paper. It consisted of twelve pages, filled with bright, newsworthy matter.

One entire page was devoted to an illustrated description of "Attractive Alton, its progressive citizens and numerous commercial advantages." It described Alton "once the haunt of the Plaza Bird, but now the fire-side of industry," and told of its "railroad facilities and river traffic, mineral wealth, the largest bottle making establishment in the United States, suburban retreats with urban comforts, street railways, gas and electric lights, picturesque scenery, municipal management and progress and social features."

Better Stay in Missouri.

From the Marshall Democrat-News.

The man who goes to Oklahoma makes a mistake. A forty-acre tract in Saline is worth more for actual farming purposes than a section of land in the Indian Territory.

This thing of making a home in the wilderness seems to be what talked of, but the reality means years of misery, want, poverty and hardship, and in thousands of cases ends with a foreclosed mortgage or a sheriff's sale.

The protected manufacturers of the East are notoriously run by foreign capital and imported foreign labor to as great an extent as the railroads. If it is important to Western interests that all roads, Canadian or domestic, shall be left free to compete and make as low rates as they please, it must be even more important to Western interests that freer competition in manufactures shall give us cheaper railroads and railroad trains, cheaper clothes and cheaper farm supplies, to enable Western farmers to keep a footing in the grain markets of Europe against the competition of the Indian and Australian colonies. But Senator CULLOM and all the Tribune helps to elect vote the other way.

The Editors Married Enough.

For the Kansas City Times.

In its Sunday edition the St. Louis Post-DISPATCH devoted a page to "several hundred of the best male catches in this State." Kansas City has ignored, presumably for the reason that it has not yet become a city.

It is a good place to live, but the editor has already been caught. This paragraph is written discreetly and modestly, and with an eye to discourage fresh raids of the Sabine women from St. Louis.

And the Fraries Also.

From the Sedalia Daily.

The Post-DISPATCH publishes a long list, 700 in number, of those eligible gentlemen who if they do not wish to marry ought to do so, at least. "It is not good for a man to be alone," especially when the woods are full of charming women who would make good companions.

MEN OF MARK.

VICE-PRESIDENT MORTON says he grows younger every day.

SENATOR COQUET is stamping Massachusetts for prohibition.

Mr. L. Q. C. LAMAS, Jr., is going into business at Rochester, N. Y.

BENJAMIN F. BUTLER stoutly maintains that he will be a Republican until next fall.

MR. CLEVELAND was elected an honorary member of the Manhattan Club Thursday night.

GOV. FORAKER of Ohio had a great toe nail removed by a surgeon who had been sued for non-payment of rent.

JOHN W. ROECKER of Philadelphia was made a Cabinet Minister in the administration of President Hayes.

MR. FARRELL, it is reported by the London Stock Exchange, has discovered gold in paying quantities on his Wicklow estate.

PRESIDENT HARRISON is said to have engaged the entire corps of house servants formerly employed by the British Minister.

MR. MCNALLY has been crowded.

REV. DR. ROBINSON, of the London Stock Exchange, has discovered gold in paying quantities on his Wicklow estate.

THE leading Republican business men who have been asked to endorse CHAUNCEY L. FILLEY for the Hong Kong consulship may be able to stretch their consciences to the indorsing point, but it will only be done on the ground that their sinful act will be justified by the good it will do the city.

JUMPED INTO A CISTERNS.

MRS. ANNIE ROEMER, widow of Will Roemer, bricklayer, suicided this morning at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Annie Wetfret, 216 South Seventh street, at New York.

She concealed herself until her brothers and Mother had left the house, and then took the leap, closing the cistern after her. Her act was witnessed by a Little Girl.

JUDGE BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

The Week Reviewed in Mercantile, Financial and Producive Circles.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's report moderate gains in the distribution of staple goods at Baltimore, Kansas City and Pittsburgh. At the first named market the volume of trade is equal to the volume of a year ago, and at Pittsburgh fine leather goods have increased. At Kansas City there is a active demand for goods and for funds for use in Oklahoma. There is a good average business doing at Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans. The outlook for wheat, cotton and corn is favorable, but the market is still uncertain. Wheat is quoted at $1.20 a bushel at Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago, New Orleans, St. Joseph and New Orleans. Salt is quoted at $1.20 a bushel at Pittsburg, Detroit, New Orleans, St. Louis and New Orleans. Corn is quoted at $1.20 a bushel at Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago, New Orleans, St. Louis and New Orleans. Beans are quoted at $1.20 a bushel at Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago, New Orleans, St. Louis and New Orleans. Oats are quoted at $1.20 a bushel at Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago, New Orleans, St. Louis and New Orleans. Stock speculation at New York has been dull and mostly of a professional character, with a few exceptions. Bonds have advanced slightly. Money at New York remains at par. The market is quiet, but the bond market is in excess of last year. Trade in furniture, machinery, naval stores, tools, leather, paint, paper, glassware and cast iron, liquor, paints, jewelry and boots and shoes are fairly active. Prices of furniture, naval stores and leather are high.

MONEY.

New York, April 20, 11 a.m.—The stock market opened higher, but after a slight dip, closed at a new high. The market was up 100, though Texas Pacific was up 100. While Burlington and Oregon Transcontinental were down a like amount, the market quieted down after the opening and while there was a generally strong tone, there was little business and no movement whatever. Chicago Gas was the leader of the list, and on an active basis advanced a portion of the per cent, but lost a portion of the gains, closing at 80. Sugar Trust, however, were again strong and closed at 80. The market continued to trading. After some hesitation the upward movement continued, and by 1 o'clock the market and all the active shares made further advances, and at 1 o'clock the market was active and strong again.

Non-Money has been easy with no loans, closing off at 80. The market closed at 80.

Other stocks closed at 80. The market subdivided into intense business after 11 o'clock, from which even the large increase in the bank stocks did not divert the market.

There was a rather heavy tone to the dealings the morning, but the market was quiet after the opening Valley was the only stock showing any marked weakness and it retired 1 per cent to 100, but late in the day it recovered 10 points and closed at 110, but firm and general at slight fractions better than the opening.

Boston—Mexican 4s, 70½%; 71%; stock 12½%; Allouez, 12½%; Calumet, 20½%; Huron, 20%.
